

GATEWAY EVENING COLOURS

Mountain Landis Record Label is proud to announce the release of the first album by Brooklyn's Gateway Evening Colours. Culled from a series of dark jam sessions, these six tracks feature Colin Langenus (USAISAMONSTER) on elastic guitar, Nate Davis (Knifestorm, Unchained) on guitar and gruesome electronics, Alex Farrill (ex-Dirty Projectors) on heavy-foot drums, and Brian House (Multitudes) on deep bass. The music reaches frenetic heights indebted to works like Peter Brötzmann's Machine Gun, Peter Green's The End of The Game, and Fripp/Eno's Evening Star. Don't lose your sea legs in the heavy water...
